Dear all

You may know that children in Year 6 completed End of Key Stage 2 statutory assessments on Thursday. We have had several visitors this week, and all commented on the mature and sensible way in which your children conducted themselves during a time when demands upon them were high. Thank you for your support in ensuring that our high expectations were met and exceeded.

Children in Reception have had a busy week: a trip to Black Park on Thursday, and a fabulous class assembly on Friday. Their faces upon return to school yesterday, and those of parents and carers in the audience for assembly today, made it clear how much these 2 events were appreciated.

With only a week to go until the final half term holiday of the year (it doesn't seem possible!), this is a reminder to make sure that you have all the important dates for a busy end of year in your diaries. See this link to the website:

Very best wishes for a happy weekend
